

Fun Ideas to Raise Funds and Collect Food

- 3.14 “Pi” Day! (Courtesy of The Land Group!) Set out jars with your C-Suite/owner names on them. Employees will place money in the jars of the Exec/Owner they want to see get “pi’d” in the face. The Exec/Owner can “buy” their way out by adding more money to the other jars. On March 14th (pi day) the Exec/Owner with the most money (or however many you decide) will get “pi’d” in the face! Celebrate by having a team pizza “pi” party afterwards! Be sure to post on social media and tag #idahofoodbank
- Hold a corn hole tournament! Each team or individual pays an entry fee that will then get donated to IFB and counted towards your overall points! Here are the rules. And here are some printable brackets.
- BINGO @ lunch (or any time of the day!) – print off your own cards here. Buy ping pong balls, label them, and have a caller draw them out of a bucket. Charge a certain amount per round and donate those dollars to the IFB. Give out prizes like company swag, lunch with the CEO, reserved parking spot, etc.
- Skip a meal and donate the money you would have spent on food.
- Wall of Money – simply hang/pin 100 envelopes to a board or wall and label each one from $1-$100. People will choose an envelope and donate that amount. You could raise $5,050 that way!
- Hold a drawing for a day off with pay, reserved parking spots, lunch with the boss, etc.
- Have a “jeans” or “Hawaiian shirt” day and donate for the privilege of dressing down.
- Hold a paper airplane competition.

Create a theme around your food drive!

- “Oodles of Noodles” – collect pasta and sauces, macaroni and cheese, ramen
- “Nuts for You” – collect nuts and nut butters – March 1 is National Peanut Butter Lover’s Day!
- “Rise and Shine” – collect oatmeal, jams/jellies, muffin mix, pancake/waffle mix, etc
- “I’m Feeling Saucy” – collect condiments like ketchup, mustard, mayonnaise, salad dressing, etc
